2 DAY GUIDED RIVER TOUR (36.5km)

This is a great weekend getaway for you, your family or friends on the beautiful Whanganui river. A two day Yeti Tour starts at Ohinepane or Cherry Grove (depending on your level of fitness), approximately 20km downriver from Taumarunui. Here the river winds it's way through a mixture of willow lined river flats, farmland and steep bush clad slopes. The trip ends just as we enter the main gorges of the Whanganui National Park. View Whanganui river map

There is plenty of time for you to explore some interesting historical sites close to the river, including the Nukunuku Museum and the Maraekowhai Niu Poles. The exit point for this trip is Whakahoro. A great weekend trip for family groups and social clubs.

3 DAY GUIDED RIVER TOUR (87.5km)

Are you the type of person who is fit but has little time? This trip is designed for you!

The 3 day trip starts down the river at Whakahoro where the main part of the National Park begins. This trip covers the most scenic sections of the river with its' bush lined gorges and spectacular waterfalls.

We visit many places of interest including, Kirikiriroa, one of many old Maori village sites, Tarepokiore, "the whirlpool", Tamatea Cave, John Coull Hut, Otumangu Landing, the Bridge to Nowhere, The "Drop Scene and Puraroto Caves, on our way to historic Pipiriki. View Whanganui River Map

NOTE: For safety reasons we will not take children on this tour. We feel our 4 Day trip is more suitable for the younger and less fit.

4 DAY GUIDED RIVER TOUR (87.5km)

The 4 day trip starts down the river at Whakahoro where the main part of the National Park begins. This trip covers the most scenic section of the river with its' bush lined gorges and spectacular waterfalls. The trip is designed to be more relaxing which is ideal for the family or less fit.

We visit many places of interest including, Kirikiriroa, one of many old Maori village sites, Tarepokiore, "the whirlpool", Tamatea Cave, John Coull Hut, Otumangu Landing, the Bridge to Nowhere, The "Drop Scene and Puraroto Caves, on our way to historic Pipiriki. View Whanganui River Map

5 OR 6 DAY GUIDED RIVER TOUR (125km)

Starting at Ohinepene/Cherry Grove, approx. 20km downriver from Taumarunui, the trip begins at a leisurely pace with time to explore or relax.

This also enables those who have little or no experience in a canoe or kayak time to become familiar with their boats.

There is also plenty of time to explore some interesting historical sites close to the river, including the Nukunuku Museum and the Maraekowhai Niu Poles.

As we progress further down the river, the farmland gives way to steep gorges and inaccessible native bush.

Once past Whakahoro, we enter the main part of the spectacular Whanganui National Park. We visit many places of interest including, Kirikiriroa, one of many old Maori village sites, Tarepokiore, "The Whirlpool", Tamatea Cave, John Coull Hut, Otumangu Landing, the Bridge to Nowhere, The "Drop Scene" and Puraroto Caves, on our way to historic Pipiriki.

10 DAY GUIDED RIVER TOUR (234km)

Have you ever wanted to follow in the footsteps of great explorers in history?

Starting: Cherry Grove, Taumarunui

Ending: Wanganui

Distance: 234 kms

The things you will see/visit on this incredible trip

- Laurens Lavendar Farm, where you will be able to have a glorious morning tea in the beautiful surroundings of the lavender
 - The Nukunuku Museum which houses a collection of artefacts obtained from the river, some of which date back 100s of years
 - The Maraekowhai Niu Poles that were erected during the times of the Hauhau wars, there is one war pole and a peace pole
 - Groyne Walls are still abundant in this section of the river from the days when the river boats used to travel from Whanganui to Taumarunui.
 - Kirikiriroa was one of many old Maori village sites that you will pass on your journey down the middle section
 - Tamatea Cave where the great explorer Tamatea sheltered from a storm
 - John Coull Hut
 - Bridge to Nowhere full of history from early settlers in that area
 - Tieke Kainga, one of many Maraes on the river
 - The "Drop Scene and Puraroto Caves
 - Pipiriki Marae complete with traditional welcome and a nights stay there
 - Jeruslaem – The Old Roman Catholic mission church. This was a mission headquarters of mother Mary Aubert and the home of a commune led by the late James K Baxter (a famous writer)
 - Pass the battle site of Moutoa Island
 - Kawana flour mills which were restored in 1980
 - Koriniti – Formerly a large settlement
- You will pass by many other old small Maori settlements as you get closer to the town of Whanganui.

FOOD & DRINK

It is vital that you bring enough food and water to keep you going on your adventure, especially on the longer trips!

When deciding what food to bring we say spoil your selves! There's plenty of room for that odd bottle of wine or favorite snack. The cooking facilities at the campsites are well equipped and its easy to whip up an awesome dinner!

Water

All campsites have water tanks so you don't have to carry all your water for the trip, be sure to bring some form of water purification for times of drought.

DOC CAMPSITES

We are encouraging our clients to make their own online bookings with DOC and then confirm their canoe arrangements with us.

SAFETY POLICIES

- All aspects of our operation are designed to put safety first. With any outdoor adventure activity there is an element of risk and it is impossible to eliminate all hazards.
- Our aim is to manage risks to acceptable levels.
- All our staff are trained to a high level of competence and all drivers have a p endorsement and vehicles used by us are licensed by the LTSA for passenger service.
- On our guided tours we have greater control of hazard management and very high safety levels are maintained at all times.

WEATHER DISRUPTION

Bad weather may occur before the start of your trip or at any time during your trip.

- We will not start your trip if we consider the river conditions to be unsafe.
- If we believe conditions are improving we may delay the start time or postpone till the following day.
- If your trip is cancelled due to bad weather, or if you are unable to postpone till the following day, all amounts held by Yeti Tours will be refunded.
- If bad weather arrives during your trip, the guide will take whatever action is necessary to ensure the safety of the group until conditions improve.(guided trips only)
- If it is necessary to evacuate the group, there will be a partial refund based on each full day not spent on the trip (less the cost of evacuation, Guided Trips Only) Freedom hire all cost is there responsibility.

SAFETY RESPONSIBILITY

All our equipment is tested regularly, however due to user error and/or unknown damage on a previous trip we cannot be held responsible for any electrical or personal equipment damaged whilst on the river. For this reason we advise against taking electrical equipment, or recommend putting it in a sealable plastic bag inside the barrel or camera case.(There is no cell phone coverage.)

Yeti tours

Freedom Rentals

- Clients are responsible for their own safety management and any additional costs arising from bad weather, or injury, must be met by the client. This includes any cost in getting any replacements to you (including kayak or canoe.)
- If weather and river conditions turn bad during your trip, your first option should be to wait it out.
- If conditions turn bad, we will allow you to sit it out and canoe/kayak back a day late, at no extra cost.
- Clients are required to replace any equipment lost and are liable for the repair cost of any equipment damaged.
- If a total loss is incurred then the excess for insurance ($500) is payable by the hirer

We do not set age limits for clients but recommend children no younger than 10 years canoe/kayak the Whanganui River.

Guided Tours

- On guided tours the guide has responsibility for all safety decisions.
- The guide or the company may change trip plans to ensure client safety.
- Clients must inform us of any existing medical condition or physical disability that could affect their ability to complete the tour.
- Yeti Tours is responsible for all company equipment on guided tours.
